

Salvation Army Gala

The Lions of Judah took center stage and headlined this year's annual Salvation Army Christmas concert, and the overwhelming reaction from the crowd was nothing short of a resounding success. Their performance electrified the audience and added a touch of majestic splendor to the traditional festivities.

The annual Salvation Army Christmas concert has always been a cherished tradition, but the inclusion of the Lions of Judah as headliners this year truly elevated it to new heights. The combination of the Lions of Judah's exceptional talent and the traditional messages of hope and joy brought forth by the Salvation Army created an evening that will be remembered for years to come.

The Salvation Army Worship Team

The Salvation Army Worship Team (pictured left) under the direction of Captain Jennifer Beachell led the audience in an exciting period of carolling.

The young singers in the Salvation Army Singing Company brought the evening to an emotional conclusion with their rendition of "Silent Night", accompanied by the Lions of Judah.
